Baltimore Committee, Representing Minority Scaboard Stockholders, Issues Statement.

DECLINES TO MAKE DEPOSIT

Circular Letter Now Being Prepared by Mr. John Skelton Williams.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BALTIMORE, MD., May 25 .- The Baltimore committee representing the minority stockholders of the Seaboard Air Line Rallway Company, who refused to assent to the terms of the first plan pro-posed by the Ryan-Blair interests for reinancing the system, will also oppose the holding company plan, which has been submitted for the original plan. The committee held a meeting this morning, and formulated a letter, which it will mall all stockholders of the company The letter in full follows:

To the Holders of International Trust Company Certificates of the Seaboard Air Line Railway:

Gentlemen,-Your committee begs to submit the following report: This committee was appointed by stockholders who objected to the original the Seaboard Air Line Railway, On February 7, 1905, the agreement of deposit was entered into between this committee and certain holders of the stock of the Seaboard Air Line Railway, now amounting to 66,000 shares. The term of the agreement of deposit was three years from the above-menvised by counsel that two features of the original Ryan-Blair plan were illegal. These features were: 1. The assertion that non-depositing stockholders under that plan would have no right to subscribe to the new issue of stock, which was offered thereunder: and. 2. The creation of a new preferred stock ahead of the present preferred Your committee was also opposed

Your committee was also opposed to the voting trus feature of the Ryan-Blair plan.

A modified plan has recently been issued by the Ryan-Blair committee. This modified plan does not attempt to create an issue of first preferred stock above the present preferred stock. It is not pretended in this modified plan to question the right of non-depositing stockholders to subscribe to their proportion of the issue of bonds, which is proposed to be authorized.

scribe to their proportion of the issue of bonds, which is proposed to be autorized.

It will, therefore, be seen that the two features of the old plan to which this committee especially objected on the ground of their illegality are abandoned. The voting trust feature is still found in the modified plan in another form; that is, through a holding company, instead of in the usua form of a voting trust.

Your committee has referred to its counsel the question whether this part of the modified plan is lawful. Whatever may be the law on this point, your committee will continue to hold on to the stock deposited with it, and will not deposit this stock with the Ryan-Blair committee.

This must necessarily be our attitude from the terms in which the modified plan is proposed. This modified plan is proposed. This modified plan is proposed. This modified plan in case the old plan cannot be carried out. The right is expressly reserved to carry out the old plan through the stock of the Scaboard Air Line Railway. In order to prevent the execution of the old plan, to which we have always been opposed, if for no other reason, this committee will, of course, not deposit its stock.

In holding on to our stock we accompiled and have in fact already accommitted and committee will, of course, not ways been opposed, if for no other that soon, this committee will, of course, not deposit its stock.

In holding on to our stock we accomplished, at least two results:

1. By retaining the ownership of our stock in the Seaboard Air Line Rallway, we prevent any scaling down of the stock and prevent also a new issue of first preferred ahead of the present preferred stock.

2. Without tieing up our stock in the holding company, which is simply a plan to perpetuate the control of a certain set of stockholders, we through the express provisions of the modified plan, may take part in the subscription to any issue of bonds which shall be made in the future on the same terms upon which the holding company may subscribe to such issue of bonds.

Your committee will continue, without compensation, to keep in touch with the course of events in the affairs of the Seaboard Air Line Rallway, and will report to you anything which it may deem important to your interests. The outside amount named for expenses, under the agreement of deposit of the 7th of February, 1905, will, of course, not be increased during the term of this committee.

Your committee is prepared to accept the deposit with it of the stock of any other stockholders of the Seaboard Air Line Rallway, who are in accord with this committee.

Your committee is prepared to accept the deposit with it of the stock of any other stockholders of the Seaboard Air Line Rallway, who are in accord with this committee in the course which it has pursued and will continue to pursue.

Very respectfully.

CARIL RUHSTRAT.
